→ Plaintiff removed from his (my) job after 7 1/2 yrs service.

5/ Facts

In my being removed from the Wood, as what lead to my dismissal, on a day not very busy but busy enough for workers to be occupied with other tasks, while observing front and back of the house (Kitchen) I then casually walked to the back door of the Kitchen and noticed before helping Fredrick Dennis, saw Brendan Bradshaw and Robert McManis taking a smoke break 15 min before our official lunch break, and sarcastically said Now that I've stopped smoking you guys are taking all the breaks.

⑥ Then about 6 min later Brendan Bradshaw came in and started screaming making these obnoxious statements (perfamily) this is while I was helping Fred Dennis, and he proceeded to get in my face and I told him to get out of my face.

#3

⑤ He then pushed up against me, and told him he'd needed to get out of my space, then Mark Szelela, told him also to back off, I as a supervisor felt that a confrontation would not solve anything, so I went to Kathy Sullivan after the confrontation and she said she heard, nothing when a co-worker Peter Frey heard him screaming all the way out side while he was cleaning.

⑥ After speaking w/ her she said she would looker into it and later on the 22, of Nov 2002, I was pulled in to the office w/ the Human resources representative of Soderho, co starting I was a threat to my co-workers and had to be removed

Relief

My request is to be financially compensated for pain & suffering and lost wages of 2½ - 3yrs of lost employment, and positions denied.

Clear my name from any allegation that has or will hurt my reputation from getting any employment w/ a Corporate or small company in which I would desire to apply with. Also letter of recommendation from previous employers of the Wood company/Executive Director Dennis Williams.

⑦ Plain tiff demands judgement against the defendant for damages in such relief as the court deem it.
